

UNICEF UK BABY FRIENDLY INITIATIVE NEONATAL CONFERENCE 2017

SENATE HOUSE, UNIVERSITY OF LONDON
TUESDAY 9 MAY 2017

TIMETABLE

UNICEF.UK/NEONATALCONFERENCE17

Chair

Caroline Lee-Davey, Chief Executive, Bliss

9.00 Registration

9.30 Welcome, overview and update

Sue Ashmore, Programme Director, Unicef UK Baby Friendly Initiative

10.15 Microbirth

Dr Matthew Hyde, Research Associate in the Section of Neonatal Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Imperial College London

11:15 Break

11.45 Implementing the Baby Friendly neonatal standards in Exeter

Karen Read, Infant Feeding Co-ordinator, and Louise Rattenbury, Matron, Neonatal Unit, Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust

12.30 The use of breastmilk fortifier and growth

Dr Laura De Rooy, Consultant Neonatologist, St George's Hospital

1.15 Lunch

2.15 Family integrated care models

Annie Aloysius, Clinical Specialist Speech and Language Therapist (Neonatology), Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

3.00 It's not what you do – it is how you do it. Practical skills for family and infant neurodevelopmental care

Inga Warren, Senior NIDCAP Trainer, University College Hospital

3.45 Break

4.15 Celebrating improvements in neonatal care (video)

Various facilities

4.45 Closing remarks

Sue Ashmore, Programme Director, Unicef UK Baby Friendly Initiative

5.00 End of conference

Price:

£95

Price includes lunch and refreshments.

Information:

For information on the conference please visit:

unicef.uk/neonatalconference17

Programme subject to change.